Message from the President

October was a busy month both at the club and for members competing at a variety of tournaments in the SWD. The President's Cup Pairs was won by Rick Gregory and George Petyo in a very competitive tournament. A team of 6 - Charlie, Jan, Don, Jerry, Ted, and Dee - won the Waterbury Championship. The club was also well represented in the SWWD 5-Star Winners tournament in both the winning team and the team that came in second (see inside this YJ for all the names), and our men's team came second in the SWLBA 5-Man All-Star tournament held in Laguna Beach.

We held three private parties in Oct and several of you supported the events - without you we could not continue to host these events. We also have one coming up on November 4th, so sign up to volunteer.

Our scheduled bowling event in November is a Thanksgiving Triples and Potluck on Nov 18th.

The Annual General Meeting is on Dec 1 when we will elect our officers and directors for 2013. The nominating committee members, headed by John MacDonald, will be talking to several of you to see if you will run for office in the coming year. Give it some thought - what you would like to volunteer for in the coming year?

Happy bowling!

Dave

Do you want to contribute to the club and have fun at the same time?

Volunteer to help with one of our private parties that are scheduled from time to time. Not only are they a lot of fun with good food and drinks, they bring in new members to ensure the continuity of the club. We need members to help set up the greens as well as give basic bowling instructions to our guests who are new to the game.

Our next, and probably last outside party for this year, is this coming Sunday starting at 11 AM. It's a 36th birthday party involving 40 or so really fun people. There is a sign up sheet at the club for those who are willing to commit 3 or 4 hours during the afternoon.

Can you contribute your time more regularly? Consider running for the board. The nominating committee will be looking for people to run for office for the next year. The AGM is on Dec 1st. Contact the nominating committee if you are interested.

Welcome new members
