Message from the President

Happy Easter,

Spring is upon us and the club has been very active. We had a great turn out of 36 bowlers for our club St Patrick's Day Pairs tournament in March. And a strong turnout of 17 members for the Men's Southwest SoCal Triples in San Diego last weekend. Great job everyone.

Our club member, Charlie Herbert, represented the USA at the Indoor World Cup at the Warilla Bowls & Recreation Club in Australia. He reached the playoffs. Congratulations on representing the USA. Also, on the international scene, Linda Roberts was part of the USA Women's team in Hong Kong which won a silver medal there.

Ray Norris's annual Spring League will start in May with a training and practice day for new bowlers on Sunday, April 29th at 4:30.

We are coming up to the club's biggest day of the year, our Open House, on Saturday, May 12th. I will be asking for volunteers to help with this huge event. We will run the open house from 8 am until 8 pm. We are planning on showing our clubs capabilities of playing at night under the lights. We will also need help on a clean up day at the club in the last week in April which will be announced soon.

Mark your calendar for the next club tournament, the President's Cup Singles, on Sunday April 15th.

All the best,

See you out on the bowling greens.

Ron Gill
