Message from the President

March is here and I sure hope the sun will shine and the rain will cooperate for all of us bowlers who want to get some great bowling. February was a tough month with all the rain we had. Bruce Williams is working hard on maintaining the greens to stop the black mold issues. Hopefully, the rain will end and so will the mold.

We had a great turnout to kick off the first club tournament of the year. We had 32 members sign up for the Valentine’s Day 3 bowl pairs tournament. Congratulations to our first place winners Tad Dutch and Shelley Cohen. Stephen Monfre and Bill Blair were second, Ivan Hyland and Bill Buchanan, third and Lou Cohen and Martin Wood, fourth. This Valentines tournament will go towards Bowler of the Year. Thank you all for your participation and thank you Mike Ruggles for running a seamless tournament and to Jim White for assisting him.

You will all be happy to know that the remodel of our kitchen is fully completed. I would personally like to thank Tory Zweigle for his kind and generous donation to this project. He and his team of workers did an amazing job. It is a huge improvement to the clubhouse.

We have many other improvements going on at the clubhouse as of now. We have painted all the walls and are in the process of laying new flooring throughout the club. I would like to thank the many people who volunteered their time to help with this huge undertaking. All of these members stepped up to help move furniture, paint walls, and rip out the old flooring. Bruce Williams, Matt and Steve Bauchiero, Patrick Senske, Jim Wysolpal, Bill Buchanan, Tad Dutch, Paul Gadbut, Brian Stewart, Rob Kost, Mike Long, Keith McCabe, Steve Monfre, Brian Mulvaney, Dennis Ring and Dave Stennes. Thank you to each and everyone of you for offering your time to improve our clubhouse.

Congratulations to Linda Roberts for coming first place on the A green and Stephanie Johnson and Herb Glazeroff for first place on the B green of the Mumma Mixed Pairs event held in Riverside. Charlie Herbert was Bowler of the Tournament at the South Central Division Men’s Open tournament in Sun City, AZ. Charlie placed in all three events. Well done all of you.

See you out on the bowling greens.
